

Bequests

A bequest or legacy is simply a gift in your Will - a memento or sum of money you want to leave to a friend, your Church, or a favourite charity like the Institute. Such a consideration could give us the chance to help the blind and visually impaired lead a useful and independent life. Discount on estate tax

Bequests made to the Institute for the Blind are allowed as a discount according to and liable to the stipulations of Article 4(h) (i) and (ii) of the Estate Tax Law (Law 45 of 1955) when calculating estate tax. How to manage a bequest

You may leave a specific amount, a percentage or the remainder of your estate to the Institute. Please consult your attorney or a bank official for assistance with this. Add the following codicil to your Will:

I bequeath the amount of R_____, or property, percentage of the estate or remainder to the Institute for the Blind, P. O. Box 933, Worcester, 6849. Contact us to inform us of a bequest to enable us to thank you.
